

Dear Jessica,

There's no denying that it's been a tough year but the good news is we've almost made it!

We wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for your hard work, support and unwavering passion for travel, especially during these trying times. Despite its pitfalls your dedication has made 2020 worthwhile and has given us a good feeling about 2021. So on behalf of the Hong Kong Tourism Board, Australia team, thank you.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit in this edition we bring you some Hong Kong holiday highlights including a reimagined Winterfest and a recipe worthy of the Christmas dinner menu.

We wish you a very happy holiday season and all the best for you and yours in the new year, The HKTB Team

Hong Kong Winterfest 2020

In true 2020 style instead of installing a Christmas tree in Statue Square, Central, we have organised a virtual tour of Christmas Town. Jump online and get ready for some festive fun and learn how to make holiday must haves like Christmas wreaths, candlesticks and other handmade products from the comfort of your couch.

The Hong Kong WinterFest runs from 4 December to 3 January 2021.

Take a virtual tour of Christmas Town

Recipe - Chilled sago cream

Had your fill of mince pies and plum pudding? Why not try your hand at a refreshingly chilled sago cream with fresh mango juice and pomelo? It's the perfect accompaniment for a hot Aussie Christmas and a recommended cure for excessive Christmas cake consumption.

Step by step recipe

Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra

Ready for some end of year R&R? Take a few moments for yourself and join the acclaimed Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra on a virtual tour of Hong Kong's breath-taking hinterlands.

Relax to Hong Kong's melodic nature sounds reinterpreted to classical music and discover a side of the city rarely seen by outsiders.

Discover Hong Kong's unexpected side with the Philharmonic Orchestra

Sustainability and conservation in Hong Kong

Hong Kong: City of Nature

Step-by-step guides to creating your own taste of Hong Kong

A Taste of Hong Kong to ...

Discover Hong Kong's sustainability and conservation feats - Prepare for adventure with Hong Kong-based Nat Geo explorers Astrid Alex Andersson and Jonathan Cybulski as they swap the city laneways and market stalls for meandering bush tracks to discover Hong Kong's natural playgrounds.

Explore with Astrid and Jonathan.

Dive into the world-renowned flavours of Hong Kong in a series of immersive cooking experiences. Join Michelin-starred chefs Shane Osborn (Arcane and Cornerstone) and Mak Kwai-pui (Tim Ho Wan) as they guide you through the best of the city's Eastmeets-West culinary history.

Click here to get cracking.

24 Hours In Hong Kong

There is so much to do and enjoy in Hong Kong. From amazing restaurants to market shopping and some of the best views in the world. ANYDOKO tried the impossible and created a jam-packed itinerary for if you only have 24 hours in the city.

The Best 24 Hours In Hong Kong!

