

Hong Kong Movie Tour

Get a cinema-phile's extreme close-up of Hong Kong! From Anita Mui and Leslie Cheung's "Rouge" to Simon Yam and Sandra Ng's "Echoes of the Rainbow", this 2.5-hour tour walks through key locations from each film while capturing the heart-warming sense of community in Sheung Wan and Central.

Tour Highlights

- Guided by experienced Hong Kong film critics and fans, review clips from around 20 classic Hong Kong movies to highlight your visits "on set"
- Throughout Sheung Wan and Central, compare stills and recall iconic scenes
- Listen to lesser-known tales from the local movie industry
- Use movie props to act out the parts of your favourite movie stars

Tour Itinerary

1. Start at the century-old Western Market. Stroll around the district to follow the footsteps of Tony Leung in "Infernal Affairs"
2. Wander down Hollywood Road, the romantic backdrop of Anita Mui and Leslie Cheung in "Rouge"
3. Uphill next to Man Mo Temple, glimpse old Hong Kong from "The World of Suzie Wong"
4. Stroll along Tai Ping Shan Street, listen to stories of Louis Koo and Daniel Wu on the set of "Don't Go Breaking My Heart"
5. Pass by Bridges Street where Andy Lau shot an action sequence in "Running on Karma", proceed to U Lam Terrace and Wing Lee Street where memorable scenes from movies including "Echoes of the Rainbow" were shot; compare old and new Sheung Wan
6. Stop at PMQ to recap "Three: Going Home". Tour ends at Kau U Fong, the dai pai dong where Sean Lau ate hotpot with Bowie Wu in "Overheard 2"
