

Mt. Davis Military History Tour

Explore historic Mount Davis at your leisure, with stunning views of surrounding islands and the ocean. Located on the westernmost hill of Hong Kong Island, Mount Davis was an important World War II artillery depot for the British armed forces. This four-hour hiking tour takes visitors into the depths of important fort ruins and a secret bunker.

Q Tour Highlights

- Enjoy the marvellous sea view of the Hong Kong Island from a 200 meter-high historic hill, and visit the Jockey Club Mt. Davis Youth Hostel
- Explore the military heritage of Hong Kong while catching up on local war stories, and discover war relics from the British armed forces and life in the army during the Second World War
- Enjoy stunning views of Lamma Island, Cheung Chau, Lantau Island, Peng Chau and Kau Yi Chau islands at Hong Kong's epic observation point of sunset

📍 Tour Itinerary

1. Depart from Sheung Wan Shun Tak Centre
2. Arrive at Mount Davis peak, visit the Jockey Club Mt. Davis Youth Hostel
3. Walk along the trail to find the old fort, camp site, control room and observation deck
4. Pass by Victoria Road to hunt for the old artillery range and British army boundary stones
5. Dismiss at Victoria Road

Tour Details

Departure Time	: 9:15a.m. and 2:30p.m., Wednesdays and Sundays
Duration	: Approximately 4 hours
Group Size	: 2-10 people
Language	: English and Mandarin

Booking

Organiser	: Eco Travel Limited (License No. 353452)
Website	: hongkong.ecotravel.hk
Contact Person	: Mr Derek Tse, General Manager
E-mail	: enquiry@ecotravel.hk
Tel	: (852) 3105 0767
Fax	: (852) 2573 2628

Notes

Bookings required at least two days in advance. Please contact travel agent for details.

