

Stories of the Place

Hong Kong is a small city with many stories waiting to be told. By exploring the physical history of three unique attractions, visitors get a glimpse of Hong Kong's past. The tour includes a visit to the grounds of the once notorious Kowloon Walled City. They will also visit two very different religious sites: tranquil Chi Lin Nunnery and Tang Dynasty-style Nan Lian Garden, and bustling Tin Hau Temple.

Q Tour Highlights

- Explore the traces of Kowloon Walled City. Once a hive of criminal activity, the maze of alleys and buildings have been turned into a Qing dynasty-style park, where visitors can still catch a glimpse of its past through its preserved monuments
- Stop at tranquil Chi Lin Nunnery and Nan Lian Garden nearby. Chi Lin Nunnery is an elegant wooden complex of temples, treasured Buddhist relics and soothing lotus ponds. Nan Lian Garden is a public park built in the style of the Tang dynasty
- Visit Tin Hau Temple at Temple Street, which houses the goddess who protected fishermen and sailors in old Hong Kong
