

Shopping in Sham Shui Po

Hunt for unique treasures in one of Hong Kong's most popular neighbourhoods! Sham Shui Po has a rich history as a blue-collar neighbourhood, but it's also well-loved among Hong Kong locals as a down-to-earth retail hotspot where bargain hunters can find almost anything.

Tour Highlights

- Step inside Mei Ho House Museum, once part of the city's oldest public housing complex, to learn about Hong Kong in the 1950s-70s
- Visit Fuk Wing Street, known to locals as "Toy Street" for its abundant toy shops
- Stop at Golden Computer Arcade, where Hong Kong's tech obsessed shop for affordable computer-related equipment
- Find inspiration for your next look on the fashionable racks of Cheung Sha Wan Road and the fabric and supply shops of Yu Chau Street
- Check out Pei Ho Street Market, known for its fantastic prices and fresh food
- Stroll Apliu Street, a bargain-hunter's paradise full of second-hand electronics
