Epicureans and wine lovers who wish to sample the extensive selection of fine wines and gourmet food, rejoice! Wine passes for the 10th edition of the CCB (Asia) Hong Kong Wine & Dine Festival will be available for purchase starting tomorrow (3 October) through various channels. Pre-event purchase will get the HK$30 admission fee waived. This year's Hong Kong Wine and Dine Festival will be turned into a mega birthday party, with ten highlight features, limited-run fine wines and other "ten"-themed new elements introduced to celebrate its 10th birthday. Locals and visitors will be treated to a host of surprises and new experiences at the event.

Organised by the Hong Kong Tourism Board, the CCB (Asia) Hong Kong Wine & Dine Festival will enter its 10th edition this year. In celebration of this memorable occasion, a new special wine pass – the "Perfect 10 Passport", which includes wine and food tokens, a welcome drink and a limited edition crystal wine glass with its stem and foot in gold colour, made specially for the occasion by renowned brand Lucaris, will be introduced this year. This award-winning wine glass features five signature curl lines at the glass bowl bottom to encourage micro-oxidation and softening of wines. This is also the first time ever for Lucaris to produce a glass in gold colour, making this limited edition glass an even more worthy addition to the collections of wine connoisseurs. A Classic Wine Pass will also be available at the same price level as before, which includes eight wine tokens and one wine glass by Stölzle.

The highly anticipated "Tasting Room" wine-paired dinner will come back this year on 27 October with a special 10-Michelin-starred dinner "A Night with the Stars". On 28 October, a new "Halloween Afternoon Tea" presented by the Mandarin Oriental Hong Kong will be offered in the "Tasting Room". Tickets to these events will be available from 3 October onwards.

For pricing and purchasing details of the 10th CCB (Asia) Hong Kong Wine & Dine Festival wine passes and "Tasting Room" feasts, please refer to the following table:
