Heritage of Mei Ho House 美荷樓生活館

Guided Tour
導賞

Heritage of Mei Ho House (HMHH) museum is the first privately-run museum of Hong Kong Housing established and operated by the Hong Kong Youth Hostels Association. Mei Ho House originated from a devastating blaze that broke out in 1953 (later known as “Shek Kip Mei Fire”). The fire caused nearly 58,000 people homeless. In order to provide long-term housing to a large number of fire victims, the government built the first batch of resettlement blocks (Block A to H) on the site of the fire. The eight six-storey resettlement blocks, which included Mei Ho House, were completed in 1954. Mei Ho House marked the beginning of Hong Kong’s public housing policies, making it an ideal site for setting up a museum focusing on the history of the local community and the evolution of public housing and folk life.

美荷樓生活館是第一間由香港青年旅舍協會設立及管理的公屋博物館。美荷樓的誕生源於1953年12月25日夜晚在石硤尾發生的一場大火（後通稱「石硤尾大火」）。大火發生在石硤尾山邊寮屋區，使接近58,000人喪失家園。為了向災民提供長期的房屋設施，包括美荷樓在內的首批八座六層高的徙置大廈應運而生。於1954年落成的美荷樓，標誌著香港公共房屋政策的開端，在原址設立生活館展示社區歷史、公屋環境以至市民生活習慣的轉變，深具意義。

PMQ was first established as The Central School in 1889, providing Western education to the public at the upper primary and secondary levels. More than half a century later, it was transformed into the Hollywood Road Police Married Quarters, then finally in 2014, the complex was revitalised into what we know now as PMQ — a creative hub filled with design studios and workshops, showcasing a wide array of products, including fashion and accessories, gifts, and other lifestyle goods.

PMQ元創方最初是一所為公眾提供高小及中學程度的西式教育官立學校—1889年中央書院遷移至此，超過半個世紀之後被改建為荷李活已婚警察宿舍，其後在2014年變身成為文創地標。在欣賞建築本身的深厚歷史之餘，還可以逛一逛這裡眾多的設計師及藝術家的工作室及精品商店，瞭解香港的匠人精神以及他們的靈感來源。
